Assistant Commissioner for Patents

Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

The undersigned has had Power of Attorney with respect to the above-captioned matter.

The current owner of this matter, Ivy Animal Health, Inc., has requested that the matter be entirely transferred to the owner's general practice firm which has an intellectual property department.

The name of the new firm is: Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal, which has offices in many cities.

It is the undersigned's understanding that attorneys at the new firm will file a Power of Attorney giving power of attorney to them in the near future.

In accordance with the owner's request, the file on this matter has been transferred to the Sonneschein firm and the undersigned is not authorized to perform any further work or activity with respect to the matter.

Consequently, the undersigned hereby requests withdrawal of all outstanding Power of Attorneys in this matter to the undersigned or undersigned's prior firms or partners. Kindly, forward any correspondence in this matter to the following pending filing of the new power of attorney:

Dr. William Zollers
Ivy Animal Health, Inc.
8857 Bond Street
Overland Park, Kansas 66214

It is noted that there is an outstanding Patent and Trademark Office action having a shortened response period ending May 5, 2002, and having a statutory period ending August 5, 2002. Consequently, there is at least one month remaining in the statutory period for response. Further, the owner has been made aware of the due dates for amendments and has still elected to transfer the matter, indicating that the Sonneschein firm will handle all future amendments or other actions. The undersigned has no current authority to act in any way on the matter.

Therefore, notice that this Request for Withdrawal of Power of Attorney has been granted is earnestly requested.

Respectfully submitted,

By  _____
